

HumanCare Russia wishes you all a good start to the new year!

Latest news from Moscow

Our contact person in Moscow, Irina Sminova sends the warmest wishes and writes that it has been very busy around Orthodox Christmas, January 7. and that many parishioners took turns getting the flu, The first week of the year Father Pavel, Alexey and Irina went go to the countryside, where she hoped that Father Pavel would be able to take a break from the constant stress due to the many sick parishioners and other sorrows.

They have had many expenses. HumanCare Russia has been able to help with the costs of Father Pavel's car, so that he does not have to borrow a car when he goes to visit families. Among other things, we have used the special operating grant from the State for this. Father Pavel is very dependent on his car, as the parishioners live scattered. This is the last time we are entitled to receive this operating subsidy. even if there are breaks in their emails and that she and father Pavel have always been with us in spirit.

Donations

We are still collecting for donations. Among other things, we organize bazaars where we sell donated gifts. We will send a donation soon.

The artist Hanne Elena Rørbech (right.) has donated some fine watercolors.

The pictures were painted in St Petersburg
